Memory Verse

"I

will always love you."

Jeremiah 31:3

Morning Time

When you go into your child's room, pretend you can't see them and say: "Good morning! [Child's name]? Where are you, [child's name]?" (Listen as you slowly walk to them.) I hear you (giggling, talking). There you are! I could hear you. (Cuddle your child.) Do you know who else we can hear from? We can hear from God when we read His words in the Bible."

Drive Time

While on the go, take turns naming the things you hear. Was that a bird? Car horn? Airplane?

When you get home, talk about how we can hear from God when we read the Bible because the Bible has God's words in it.

Cuddle Time

Cuddle with your child and pray: "God, thank You for the Bible. Thank You that we can read Your words and hear from You. Help us listen and do what You say. We love You, God."

Bath Time

During bath time, take turns making animal sounds and guessing the animal. As you dry your child off, say: "That was fun! We could hear each other making animal sounds. We can hear from God, too, when we read the Bible!"
